Workshop on "How to Resolve Conflicts"

Psychologists and facilitators conducted a useful workshop on conflicts and methods of their resolution at the "Svity" club. The topic is relevant for everyone, especially adolescents who are still learning to behave properly in conflict situations. Participants of Svity gained valuable knowledge and skills, as well as effective tools for dealing with conflicts.

During the workshop, the concepts were thoroughly analyzed, different behavior styles of people during conflicts were discussed, useful skills were practiced, and participants were assured that blaming and personal attacks are not a solution. The interesting material and interactive format of the workshop helped the children to better absorb the information.

"Stritenska candle" Masterclass

Participants took part in the master class "Stritenska candle", where they made a candle-gromyichka and discussed the traditions of our ancestors. The Stritenska candle is considered a powerful talisman with strong protective energy. It is lit with the purpose of cleansing the home and getting rid of negative thoughts, in case of family troubles, illness, and many other situations. The purpose of the master class is to delve into the depths of centuries and acquaint participants with the traditions of Ukrainian holidays because involving children in national traditions is of great importance for the future of Ukraine.

Parent Support Group

Support is needed not only for children but also for adults, so we conduct support groups for parents of children who participate in the "Svity" project. It's important for everyone to be able to share their feelings and be heard, as well as to receive valuable advice and support.
